Prom season is here and Auxiliary #606 in Ford City, PA wanted to make sure that everyone in their town was able to attend their special event in style, regardless if they could afford to dress the part.

Ford City held their first ever Prom Dress Giveaway event at the beginning of March, and with the help of their community, the Auxiliary was able to give away more than 65 dresses to girls in need.

The purpose of the event was to help girls with limited income, who otherwise would not be able to attend their prom. The opportunity arose, so the Auxiliary stepped up with the support of local businesses to put on this dress giveaway.

For the event, Ford City Aerie #606 donated the use of their social hall for six hours. Hundreds of gowns were on racks for the girls to choose from, most of which were donated from a similar event held at Faith Community Christian Church.

Auxiliary #606 member Sue Cravener, who is also a member of Faith Community Church, was helpful in orchestrating this event because of her connection with the Auxiliary and the church. The prom dress mission at the church was not as successful as they hoped, so the Pastor’s wife, Sissy Bracken, gifted Cravener with the remaining items, and loaned the use of Ford City Auxiliary gave away prom dresses as a collective community effort to help local high schoolers attend their prom.

Renew Your Eagles Membership Before It’s Too Late

Time is running out to renew your dues for the 2019-2020 fraternal year! All members must be paid by May 31, 2019 to retain their membership in good standing and continue receiving access to family protection through the Memorial Foundation, access to our nearly 1,400 Aeries throughout the United States and Canada, incredible savings with partners like Nationwide Insurance, Red Roof Inn and more, and the ability to attend or vote at the 2019 International Convention in Louisville.

Members should renew before May 27 to avoid having their Aerie or Auxiliary charged for an additional dues reminder to be sent to you. Anyone not renewed by June 30 is at risk of losing all the benefits of being a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

This year, we’re on the path to achieving Net Gain for the first time since 1993. Help us get started on the right foot for next year by renewing your dues and by reaching out to someone you know who might be interested in becoming a member.

Membership is the lifeblood of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and without high retention and continued growth, we limit our ability to help communities throughout North America.

Don’t wait! Renew today and help bring in new members to our order for years to come. If you have questions about the membership process or are receiving dues reminders, contact us at membershiphelp@foe.com or via phone at 614-883-2200.

We Are People Helping People

Alaska
- Every year the Kasilof Aerie #4317 supports the Way-Out-Women (WOW) cancer fund. They were able to raise $4,000 of combined donations through arts and craft sales, a silent auction, and by organizing a fundraising dinner. The WOW cancer run is a yearly event where women snow-machine enthusiasts wear costumes and complete a 50-mile ride through the Caribou Hills. All the money directly benefits cancer patients in the local community.

California
- Following the passing of Lehigh Acres Auxiliary #3938’s beloved member Marjorie Wallace, a celebration of life was held for her at the club. The family requested attendees bring nonperishable items to honor the giving and generous spirit of Marje. Over 700lbs. of goods were collected and distributed to two local food banks.
- Sara-Mana Auxiliary #4424 hosted a weekly fundraising event on Monday evenings called Feather your Nest. In less than 12 months, they were able to give a $5,500 check to Face Autism, which is a nonprofit organization that provides sensory friendly activities, support groups, referral for therapeutic services, structured classes, and other necessary resources for autistic children.

Nebraska
- When devastating floods hit Nebraska, Bellevue Eagles #3912 hosted a free dinner for the victims of the flood, first responders, and volunteers, and was able to serve close to 300 individuals. Also, they were able to raise more than $1,000 in one day to help support the flood victims by collecting generous donations from local businesses, community members, and Eagle members. More than 300 homes in Bellevue alone were deemed uninhabitable after the floods, and #3912 plans on hosting a future benefit to help with recovery efforts.

Ohio
- Cuyahoga Falls Aerie #2207 held its 23rd annual Chili Cook-Off and invited the Falls Cancer Club to be a part of the event. #2207 was able to present a $4,000 check to the Falls Cancer Club, and another $500 from the cook-off, and eagle members gave an additional $250 to the club as well.

their large hanging racks.

All of the shoes, jewelry, makeup, purses, and gowns were donated, and the gowns ranged in value from $600 to $800.

To gain attention and support from their community to help with this cause, the Auxiliary sent letters to businesses, spread the word on social media platforms, and had an article in their local paper.

Local community members and businesses donated their time and services. Heidi Higgins, a seamstress, did free alterations, DJ 7UP, who is an Aerie member, provided music entertainment, and others donated items to provide a light lunch. Auxiliary officers and volunteers cleaned and steamed the gowns four days prior.

Drawings were held during the event, and winners could redeem certificates for hair, nails, and flowers, which were all donated by local vendors.

Ruth Jordan, Madam Conductor and dual member of Auxiliary #606 and #533, helped run this event with Jill Davis, Madam President, and said, “It was a new challenge and everyone [at the Auxiliary] was extremely excited to help the local community with something that has never been in this area before.”

For girls who were not able to attend the event, they set up private appointments with the Auxiliary to pick up a gown at a later time. After the event, there were still about 100 dresses left over, some of which were donated, and the others were cleaned and saved for next year.

“It was fantastic to see the girls coming out dressed in the gowns but, it was even more exciting to see the faces of the mothers and fathers,” they said.

Jordan and Davis say that the Auxiliary is looking forward to hosting this event again, and they hope it will grow so they can help even more girls in their community. The Auxiliary also would love to help the community more, and they said if the opportunity presents themselves, they want to be involved.
